

Splash

The 150th running of the New York Yacht-Club's Annual Regatta Presented by Rolex brought out the high-tech racers but the classics stole the show. The NY30 Amerita leads the classic double-ender Angellita, the first American boat to win Olympic Gold in Los Angeles in 1932. She also served as the flagship for the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles. The 52-meter sloop designed by Nicholas Potter was built in 1930 and rebuilt in the 1990s. Orrie van der Wal photo

